Bill Dickey 1954	Earle Combs 1970	Larry Mac Phail. . . . 1978

The Yankees were the first team to wear uniform numbers regularly (1929), and their numbers have always been a source of fascination. More are retired than on any other team . . . Did you know that Joe DiMaggio was #9 as a rookie? Yogi Berra was #35? Mickey Mantle #6? Bobby Richardson #29? Roy White #48?

RETIRED NUMBERS . . . The Yankees have retired eight uniform numbers, #3 Babe Ruth (1948), #4 Lou Gehrig (1939), #5 Joe DiMaggio (1952), #7 Mickey Mantle (1969), #8 Yogi Berra and Bill Dickey (1972), #15 Thurman Munson (1979), #16 Whitey Ford (1974), and #37 Casey Stengel (1970).

* Denotes League Leader

DID YOU KNOW . . . the top 1-2 punch the Yankees ever had in stolen bases was in 1914, when Fritz Maisel set the club record of 74 steals, and Roger Peckinpaugh added 38 for 112. The Yanks stole 252 bases that year.

ABOUT ONE-HITTERS

Yankee pitchers have hurled 48 one-hitters over the years, the most recent being by Luis Tiant on July 8, 1979 at Oakland in which Rickey Henderson had a 4th inning single. Bob Turley and Whitey Ford each hurled 3 for the Yanks, and both men participated in a fourth. Luis Tiant had 2 previously, now three overall. Bob Shawkey, Rip Collins, Lefty Gomez, Vic Raschi and Floyd Bevens, each threw two one-hitters, with one of Bevens' coming in a World Series. The Yankees have been one-hit 41 times, the last two times by Nolan Ryan, he one-hit them on July 13th, 1979 in California, with Reggie Jackson, getting a ninth inning single, and on August 20th, 1973, also in California, with Thurman Munson getting a first inning single. The Yankees have been one-hit 13 times since they were last no hit in 1958. Joe Wood and Earl Hamilton, along with Ryan are the only men with a pair of one-hitters against New York, both of Hamilton's coming in 1913. No-hit pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm, also one-hit the Yanks in 1959. Horace Clarke is the only Yankee to twice serve as a spoiler, breaking up no-hitters by Jim Palmer and Joe Niekro. In 1970 Clarke broke up three no-hitters in the 9th inning in one month, two of which wound up being more than one-hitters.

DID YOU KNOW. . . Tom Zachery, the man who gave up Babe Ruth's 60th homer in 1927, was 12-0 for the Yankees two years later—the best 1.000 pitching record ever recorded.

To Determine Batting Average—Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

To Determine Earned Run Average—Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take this number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

League Curfew—All night games must be called at 1:00 A.M. local time. If an inning is started prior to 1:00 A.M. local time, it can be completed. A game called at the end of a complete inning with the score tied after nine innings is a suspended game.

Disabled List—Pitchers must be on for a minimum of 21 days. All other players may be placed on a 15 day list.

Qualifications for a "Rookie"—A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (A) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues or (B) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a Major League club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

'Magic Number'—Determine number of games to be played . . . add 1 . . . subtract number of games ahead in loss column from closest opponent.

Game winning RBI's . . . Credit a game winning RBI to the player who drives in the run that gives his team a lead it never relinquishes.

OBTAINED: Yankees #3 selection in June 1971 Free Agent Draft by scout Atley Donald.

1979 SEASON: Following what was one of the most remarkable years a pitcher in the history of baseball has ever had . . . Ron finished strong in 1979, to register a second straight great year of pitching for the Yankees . . . the year started slowly for Ron . . . he got off to a 2-2 start, and then volunteered to go to the bullpen after the Yanks were unable to come up with a replacement for the injured Rich Gossage . . . Ron relieved against the A's on May 6th and shut them out on 2 hits for the final 3.2 innings, and got credit for the win as the Yanks scored in the bottom of the 10th to beat the A's, 6-5 . . . his next relief appearance came on May 8th against the Mariners, and he shut them out without a hit over the final 2 innings, to save a 5-3 win for Jim Beattie . . . after not pitching for seven days, it was decided to put Ron back in the starting rotation on May 16th against the Tigers, and he responded with a complete game 6-2 win . . . he stayed in the starting rotation the rest of the year . . . Ron then dropped 5 of his next 7 decisions and was 6-7 on July 15th, after which he took off on an 11 game winning streak, starting with a 12-4 win over the A's on July 21st . . . he would not lose again until September 21st, when he dropped a 3-2 complete game decision to the Blue Jays . . . his 11 straight wins were in straight starts from July 21st to September 13th . . . prior to the streak he had lost 3 straight, which represented the longest losing streak of his career (Ron had a 13 game win streak to start the 1978 season) . . . during the streak Ron pitched 87 innings, allowing 83 hits and 33 earned runs, a 3.41 ERA . . . after losing to the Jays to stop the streak, Ronnie then beat the Indians, 6-3 for his 18th win and 15 CG of the year, finishing then with 12 wins in his last 13 decisions . . . Guidry actually deserved a lot better last year, in his 8 losses, the Yanks were shutout 3 times, and scored just 1 run 3 times, and his other 2 losses were both by one run . . . since he returned to the starting rotation on May 16th, Ron finished 15-6 with a 2.98 ERA

... he was 12-1 post all star game ... in 1978 he was 12-2 ... and 10-2 in 1977 ... so he is 34-5 post all star game the last three years ... add a perfect 4-0 post season mark, and he has won 51 of his last 63 regular season decisions ... with the 4-0 post season mark he is 55-12 (.821 pct) since August 11, 1977 ... Ron finished the season with 201 strikeouts (2nd to Ryan's 223), making him the first Yankee pitcher in history to record two, 200 strikeout seasons ... Ron led the league in ERA at 2.78 ... he was 4th in wins with 18 ... 8th in CG's with 15 ... he had 7, 10+ strikeout games in '79 ... was named to the UPI All star team ... his K high last year was 13 (May 16th vs Det) ... Ron is now 59-19 lifetime, a .756 winning percentage ... played centerfield for an inning on September 29th against Toronto.

CAREER: To repeat, Ron had one of the best years ever had by a pitcher in the 1978 season ... he led the major leagues in wins with 25, winning pct (.893) ... ERA (1.74) ... and shutouts (9) ... he was 2nd in K's with 248 ... started the season with a Yankee record 13 straight wins, he broke the record previously held by Atley Donald, the Yankee scout who signed Ron ... four times in '78 Ron posted back to back shutouts ... his 9 shutouts on the year set the Yankee record, and were the most in a season by an American League lefthander since 1916, when Babe Ruth also had 9 (the AL record for lefthanders) ... he won 12 of his last 14 regular season decisions, with 7 of those 12 being shutouts ... completed 8 of his last 13, and 10 of his last 16 ... the Yanks won 30 of the 35 games Ron started in '78, and in the 5 they lost, they scored only 7 runs ... pitched the Yanks pennant clinching win against the Red Sox, and clinched the ALCS series against the Royals ... 15 of his 25 wins followed Yankee losses ... the A.L. batted just .193 against him ... K'd 10 or more in a game 8 times, including an 18 strikeout performance against the Angels on June 17th, 1978, then set a Yankee club record, breaking Bob Shawkey's mark of 15, that had stood since 1919, and setting an A.L. record for lefthanders ... the list of his 1978 milestones seems endless ... his 248 strikeouts, set a new all time Yankee record for K's in a season ... Jack Chesbro previously held the record with 239 in 1904 ... he was the first Yankee since Al Downing (217 in 1964) to K more than 200 batters in a season ... his .893 pct (25-3) was the best winning pct by a 20 game winner in baseball history ... his 1.74 ERA was the lowest by a major league lefthander since Sandy Koufax' 1.73 in 1966 ... per 9 innings in '78 Guidry had the following averages: hits—6.14 ... runs—2.00 ... earned runs—1.74 ... walks—2.36 ... K's—8.16 ... In only 2 innings all year did he give up more than 2 runs in an inning ... had two, 3—hitters, and three 2-hitters ... lifetime has five, 2-hitters ... was the AL's Player of the month in June and September ... he was a unanimous choice as the league Cy Young Award winner, collecting all 28 first place votes ... the only other unanimous winner was Denny McLain in 1968 ... other major 1978 awards won by Guidry were: Sporting News Major League Player of the Year ... SN Man of the Year ... AP Male Athlete of the Year ... Baseball Quarterly Performer of the Year ... Baseball Digest and Bulletin Player of the Year ... was named to the ALL Star teams of the SN, AP, and UPI ... the 1978 season followed a year of "firsts" for Ronnie in 1977 ... picked up his first major league win, CG and shutout ... had his problems in the spring of '77, but came on and held the Yankee pitching staff together when injuries and ineffectiveness hit the staff ... 1977 was Ron's first full season with the Yankees, he was back and forth between the Yanks and Syracuse for the 1975 and 1976 seasons ... Ron was used in relief in 6 of his first 7 appearances in '77, then finished the year with 24 straight starts ... Ron has great running speed, and has scored 4 runs as a pinch runner ... a starter his first three years in pro ball, Ron became a relief pitcher in 1974 at West Haven ... the following year at Syracuse he struckout 76 in 63 innings ... in 1977 Ron finished 18th in the MVP voting, but was the first starting pitcher named ... he was runnerup to Rice in 1978.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Ron is very popular in his hometown of Lafayette, Louisiana ... there was no baseball team in his high school, so Ron ran track, and was named the outstanding track man at Northside High in 1967 and 1968 ... hurled a no-hitter at the University of Southwestern Louisiana ... enjoys chess and hunting in his spare time ... is of French ancestry ... says his 18 K performance against the Angels was his greatest thrill in baseball ... lists the Royals George Brett as his toughest individual opponent ... active in the Special Olympic program.
